

Is the HTPP for You?

The new Healthcare Talent Pipeline Program (HTPP) funded by Westchester County will train individuals to become a Clinical Medical Assistant or Medical Administrative Assistant. Successful candidates will earn a NYS approved training credential, receive job readiness training and be connected to leading healthcare partners in Westchester County.

Join an industry with great career advancement opportunities!
Support services and stipends available to those who qualify.

“I was like Wow! when I found out about the program and that the training and books were free and they would provide supports and help me get a job. This has been a great opportunity.” Brenda R.
