

INTERGENERATIONAL STORYTELLING THROUGH CLAY

for Seniors and Teens

When: Wednesday March 27, Wednesday April 3, Thursday April 11, 2019

Where: Arts Westchester, 31 Mamaroneck Ave, White Plains, NY

Time: 4:30-6pm

Program Description: A skilled teacher will guide you in making a clay artifact that expresses your own personal story. Working in pairs, you will get to know each other and discuss literal or figurative representations of your life's story. The instructor will then introduce tools and materials to help you learn to work with clay. With the help of the instructor, each participant will complete a clay project of a tile or plaque that represents themselves and will have the opportunity to share some of their life story with a partner from a different generation.
