Hudson Valley Credit Union Joins Nonprofit Westchester as a Lead Funder

White Plains, New York, April 22, 2021 - Nonprofit Westchester (NPW) is pleased to announce that Hudson Valley Credit Union has committed to investing in the County's only business membership organization dedicated to advancing the needs of Westchester's nonprofit sector. Through generous funding of $7500, Hudson Valley Credit Union will support a series of NPW financial management programs designed to strengthen nonprofit organizations and a training for nonprofit staff who have experienced disproportionate financial hardship as a result of the pandemic.

Nonprofit Westchester is an amazing resource for the organizations that work so hard to make our community better," said Lisa Morris, Assistant Vice President with Hudson Valley Credit Union. "We're so pleased to collaborate with them to build the capacity of nonprofit organizations to strengthen their financial knowledge and practices. As a financial cooperative, HVCU strives to provide information and education members can use to make the best decisions concerning their money, and we're confident this program will empower nonprofit leaders as they take their organizations to the next level of success."

"We are excited about our partnership with Hudson Valley Credit Union that will allow NPW to offer extensive programming that will support nonprofits to move forward, improve their operations, fulfill their missions and realize positive social impact," said Jan Fisher, Executive Director, Nonprofit Westchester. "It was evident from the start that they both understand and care about the issues confronting the nonprofit sector, the people we serve and our workforce."
