Nonprofit Westchester Signs On Morgan Stanley Wealth Management as Sponsor

Corporate Partner to Support Leading Nonprofit Member Organization

White Plains, New York January 23, 2020 - Nonprofit Westchester has announced that Morgan Stanley Wealth Management will become a Silver Sponsor, joining a growing group of area companies who have committed to supporting the County's sole membership organization dedicated to advancing the interests of the nonprofit sector.

For over 80 years, Morgan Stanley Wealth Management has worked with individuals, families, businesses and institutions to deliver services and solutions that help build, preserve and manage wealth. Capabilities include brokerage and investment advisory services, financial and wealth planning, access to credit and lending, cash management, annuities and insurance, and retirement services..

"We are delighted to be a sponsor for Nonprofit Westchester," said Christian A. Templeman, Associate Vice President, Financial Advisor and Corporate Retirement Director, with Morgan Stanley Wealth Management. "I have been working with nonprofits in Westchester for over 26 years, and look forward to helping this important organization grow."

"We appreciate Morgan Stanley's commitment to advancing equity in our communities, " said Jan Fisher, Executive Director, Nonprofit Westchester. "It is truly inspiring to see a company like Morgan Stanley Wealth Management step up and step in to help ensure that Westchester will continue to be a special place that provides people from all backgrounds with opportunities to live, work, learn, recreate and thrive."
