

Group Leader

Westchester Jewish Community Services (WJCS) is a large, not for profit, organization with headquarters in White Plains, NY. We are currently searching for a part-time, 7-10 hours per week, Group Leader for an exciting program, “Shelanu” (Ours), focused on educational, recreational, and socialization experiences for Jewish young adults, on the Autism Spectrum, ages 18-35. The Group Leader is responsible for implementing programs, accompanying participants on trips into the community and synagogues, assisting in the organization of the group, and maintaining accurate attendance records.

The ideal candidate must have experience working with adults in the autism spectrum; possess a college degree or working toward a degree; knowledge about Jewish values a plus.

At WJCS we value our employees, their contributions, and their growth. We demonstrate this commitment with much more than highly competitive benefits and compensation - we show it everyday in the way we work together, embracing leadership behaviors that are recognized and rewarded throughout our system. We value you, your growth and your contributions.

If you would like to be considered for the Group Leader position, e-mail your resume to Mrivera@wjcs.com.
