

EMPATHY AND EMPOWERMENT

The Documentary Photography of José Alvarado Jr.

Photographer José A. Alvarado Jr. is a New York—based Puerto Rican photographer dedicated to documenting class inequality, civic engagement, and contemporary issues in Puerto Rico and New York City. He works primarily in long-form storytelling, using photography to help raise awareness of the struggles and hardships impacting individuals and communities immersed in positions where they feel trapped, violated, and unable to escape. His goal is to spread awareness, begin discussions and to discover strategies to navigate these challenges in our society.
